Unique pet keepsake urns launched in UK

You heard it in Pets Magazine first: Urnaments LLC, the creator of unique keepsake urns for both people and pets, is to launch its product to the UK market.

Pet urnaments, distinctive mementos that celebrate rather than mourn a beloved pet's life, are now taking the pet memorial market across the pond by storm.

These decorative and individually designed urns come with their own pedestals and can be displayed anywhere in the home.

Urnments can even be hung decoratively on the Christmas tree, which, although not to everyone's taste, will help to celebrate the deceased pet's life, for many.

To find out more about pet urnaments, or their human equivalent, and to buy your very own keepsake urn, visit: www.urnaments.com.
