

Affinity Driving School Unveils New Feature on its Website to Book Lessons Online

Wimbledon, London, 4th Aug'12- Affinity Driving School, one of the top Driving schools operating in South West London, is all set to launch its latest offering to facilitate the people of the city. Aspiring students can now avail the facility of booking lessons through its website at <http://www.affinitydrivingschools.co.uk>. The option to book lessons online is one of the many facilities that the school offers to facilitate its clients in the course of helping them become confident and skilled drivers.

Affinity Driving School is a dynamic brand that is constantly evolving, pushing the barriers of driving instruction and finding new and better ways to help students become skilled drivers. The South London driving school strives to direct the vast collective experience of their instructors towards the refinement and honing of the skills of its students. Providing professional instructions to first timers as well as those who are looking to refresh their skills or are trying to come out of a bad past driving experience, the school has been setting a benchmark for quality driving instruction for many years.

"Affinity' means a natural or fundamental attraction or bond.", explains Mr. Russell Platel, the head of Affinity Driving School. "Living up to our name, we hope that our clients enjoy and learn well on their lessons and that we build a reciprocal relationship based on these qualities. All of our clients are issued with a driver record and guided through a complete course of structured tuition. We find this encourages good habits in both the learner and the instructor and avoids a haphazard or random approach. Whether you are a first time learner or someone taking refresher lessons, referral to the DSA syllabus is the surest and quickest way to achieve competent and proficient driving attitudes and skills. And that is the kind of Wimbledon driving lessons we provide here at Affinity."

"Affinity are without a doubt professional and have the knowledge to see what each individual needs to pass.."

The website of the school is extremely interactive and easy to use. Users will find the online lesson booking facility to be a welcome feature, providing them with access to driving lessons no matter where they are! Once a client makes the booking, the school will then send an instructor directly to their home for an introductory lesson that will be offered to them at rates as low as £10.
