

Gospel Music

Gospel Music comes in different sub genres to celebrate the gospel message and provides wonderful enjoyment for anyone watching and listening. Gospel music performed by great artists and acts can deliver so much passion, fire and spirit that can make your soul soar!

Gospel music has its origins centuries ago developed as work songs in USA's Deep South. In the churches it became an exchange between the preacher and choir and generally involving all those attending. This can be considered traditional gospel music. Over the past 60 or so years like most of popular music has been widened in style and form appealing to people from different cultures, ethnicities and origins.

Many of today's and past top vocal artists have experienced gospel music in one form or another and their talent has been enriched and so have we in hearing them!

Just consider the great singers and performers such as Mariah Carey, Whitney Houston, Aretha Franklin and even Elvis Presley! These top talents crossed over to contemporary pop where they became most famous.

There are many excellent artists and acts past and present that have kept to the gospel message in their music and performance, some of these include Mahzalia Jackson, Kirk Franklin, Mary Mary, Yolanda Adams, Marvin Sapp, Shirley Ceasar amongst so many.

The many different sub genres of gospel music covers a wide range of styles, all with the gospel message at its core:-

- Traditional Black Gospel
- Urban Contemporary Gospel
- Christian Hip Hop (Gospel Rap)
- Gospel Blues (Holy Blues)
- Southern Gospel (Country Gospel)
- Progressive Southern Gospel
- Bluegrass Gospel
- and more!

There are enough styles to suit virtually anyone who loves music. By listening to the words and understanding them can bring enlightenment to anyone's life

UK Gospel Music is also blessed with excellent artists and acts such as Muiyiwa, Mike Soul, Four Kornerz, Simply Andy, Rachel Kerr, Lurine Cato, Nu Image, Siani and so many more!

Hero Stars want to add new acts and artists to the list of great vocalists through its Gospel Heroes talent search audition and contest showcase events. We hope to hear you or see you at one of our events starting this September.
