DALLAS INTERNET MARKETING AGENCY WELCOMES LATEST TEAM MEMBER

Standing Dog Interactive hires Amber Watt as Director of Client Management.

Dallas, TX – Standing Dog, one of the top digital agencies in Dallas, has named Amber Watt as Director of Client Management in its hospitality division. Amber joins Standing Dog as the company continues to enjoy significant growth, having just been listed as an Inc. 5000 company for the third year in a row.

Amber comes to Standing Dog from Aqua Hotels and Resorts, where she served as the Corporate Director of Online Marketing. At Aqua, Amber led the digital ecommerce strategy overseeing the website, search engine optimization, paid search, display and social media tactics.

Amber's role as Director of Client Management at Standing Dog will help the Dallas-based Internet marketing agency expand its already impressive hospitality experience and add new depth to our client management team. "We were impressed with Amber's online marketing and hospitality experience," said Mike Wylie, president of Standing Dog Interactive. "She will add additional strength and knowledge to the great team we have in place today."
