LOS ANGELES AIRPORT HOTEL RESTAURANT RECEIVES WINE SPECTATOR AWARD The Los Angeles Airport Marriott Hotel uncorks the wine bottles, raises a glass and celebrates a very special award from Wine Spectator magazine.

Los Angeles, CA – One of the best LAX hotels is the toast of the town after winning an award from Wine Spectator magazine.

JW's Steakhouse at the Los Angeles Airport Marriott Hotel received special honors from the prestigious magazine recently. This Los Angeles International Airport hotel was recognized with the Award of Excellence for their wine list. Offering a wide selection of wines, delicious food, and led by experienced Executive Chef Thomas O'Keefe, JW's Steakhouse is proud to be the recipient of this award.

The LAX hotel's restaurant will celebrate the award formally on September 13 with a special unveiling, wine tasting and food pairing.

In order to have been considered for the award, a restaurant must offer at least 100 bottles. JW's Steakhouse features over 120 bottles on any given night. The Los Angeles Airport Marriott Hotel is the only Marriott hotel in California to have won this award.

"We're proud to be recognized for our wine list," said Erik Nygren, Director of Restaurants at the hotel. "Chef O'Keefe has done an amazing job pairing wines with menu offerings and complementing our impressive wine list."

With an elegant and intimate atmosphere, JW's Steakhouse at the Los Angeles Airport Marriott Hotel is an ideal place for special occasions, group events—and always a great choice for a delicious meal. Executive Chef O'Keefe's 25 years of experience shows in every dish on the menu. It's no wonder that celebrities like Frank Sinatra, Bob Hope and Gerald Ford have requested special menus from this accomplished chef.
