BOSTON, PEABODY HOTEL ENDS SUMMER WITH WHALE WATCHING DEAL

The Boston Marriott Peabody Hotel welcomes guests to an adventure on the high seas to celebrate the end of summer with a new deal.

Boston, MA – Summer is ending, but the Marriott Peabody Hotel is offering guests one last chance for adventure with a new hotel deal.

The Boston Marriott Peabody Hotel offers guests the exciting Whale Watching package to end the summer months. Guests staying at the hotel near Salem can take this opportunity to catch one of the most exciting occurrences at sea: majestic whales migrating for the season.

September and October are the final months of the active whale watching season. Majestic humpback whales can be spotted feeding and swimming out at sea. Guests staying at this hotel near Gloucester can take advantage of the Whale Watching deal, which includes two tickets to Cape Ann Whale Watch, one of the best whale watching companies according to Boston Magazine's New England Travel guide, and an overnight stay in a deluxe guest room with either a king or two double beds.

After a day out at sea whale watching, guests will return to this Peabody hotel and relax in spacious hotel rooms and enjoy luxurious amenities. Complimentary high-speed Internet access lets guests go online and share their whale-watching photos. Plush beds and furniture provides plenty of comfortable places to relax. Guests can also grab a bite to eat at the on-site Sophia's Restaurant.

Book the Whale Watching Package at the Peabody Hotel and experience one last adventure this summer.

To reserve this Peabody hotel deal, use promotional code ES7 online or call 1-800-228-9290. This deal is available from now until October 28, 2012, seven days a week. Other restrictions may apply. For more information, visit www.marriott.com/BOSPB
