Rob Lane named Partner and Shareholder

Viridian Tax and Accounting names Rob Lane Partner

Adriel Tam and Marcus Dusenbury today announced the addition of Rob Lane (pictured) to the Viridian Tax and Accounting Family. Rob will be responsible for leading the overall Tax and Accounting office in Seattle.

"I have known Rob for well over a decade and have always been impressed with his ability to work with complex client issues and most importantly provide a very high level of service to each and every one of his clients." – Co-President, Adriel Tam

Mr. Lane, most recently, leaves Moss Adams where he was responsible for handling complex tax and estate planning issues. He has been in various positions with Deloitte & Touche, Merrill Lynch, and Bank of America to name a few.

Mr. Lane grew up in nearby Forks, WA and earned his undergraduate degree from Loyola Marymount University. He then went on to get his MBA and JD at Gonzaga University and finally his Masters in Taxation at the University of Washington.

Viridian Tax and Accounting is an independent firm providing comprehensive tax and accounting services to closely held businesses, families, and individuals.
