

Mike Bashi's Extraordinary Web Hosting Reviews Now Available Free of Charge at Hostmonopoly.com

Well known online marketing consultant and trainer Mike Bashi has recently come up with a new website offering free web hosting reviews for online business enthusiasts. The free website named Hostmonopoly.com not only reveals the most recommendable hosting service provider, but also offers invaluable tips to manage a website hosting account without any hassles.

Finding comprehensive and trustworthy web hosting reviews on hundreds of service providers is now possible by visiting only one website. Well known corporate trainer and internet marketing genius Michael Bashi has recently introduced Hostmonopoly.com, his latest website providing all necessary guidelines to build a website without wasting time and money on ordinary hosting service providers. Apart from revealing the identity of the best hosting service provider, the website also serves as an excellent tutorial for efficient management of a website hosting account. Thousands of online business owners have already become members of the program just by sharing a valid email address.

The importance of web hosting reviews has significantly increased now because most online entrepreneurs find it difficult to make the right choice. Consequently, thousands of review websites have been created. Unfortunately, most of these websites are not at all reliable, and the posted reviews are often found to be false. Mike Bashi's website is extraordinary because he has used all web hosting services for at least a month to find out their pros and cons. All the findings of his research are available in a concise form in the free video tutorial available in Hostmonopoly.com.

Talking about his inspiration behind creating a website for web hosting reviews, Mr. Bashi said, "Many young business owners find it extremely difficult to make the right choice while opting for a web host. As a beginner in this field, I had to spend several years searching for the best of the lot. With this website, I have tried to help them out so that they do not suffer the way I did". Mr. Bashi has also informed that some more online tutorials from him are about to hit the market very soon.

About Hostmonopoly.com: Hostmonopoly.com is a review website launched by noted business consultant Michael Bashi. This website helps entrepreneurs find out the best web hosting service provider with a comprehensive, free training video.
