FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Execoach Offers Expert Mentoring, Coaching And Leadership Learning

Special Correspondent

[MADRID, SPAIN-September 17, 2012*]

When successful organizations create working environment in their companies, individuals start to take initiative and responsibility, which successfully makes them empowered to take calculated risks to flourish their professional careers.

Keeping this in mind, Execoach are market leaders in forming organizations by training young individuals to deal, manage and find solutions. They are experts in coaching, mentoring and leadership.

Execoach are specialists in coaching teams to enable them to focus on personal and professional development, which incorporates the effective qualities of reflection, growing, learning, adapting and developing leadership skills in every aspect of their career.

They also provide training for companies through innovative and novel methods of teachings, which are customized according to the diverse needs and goals of companies that enable them to recognize their strengths and opportunities to develop the hidden talent in its professionals.

Execoach focuses on tailoring learning opportunities for leaders and improve their own effectiveness, which makes them to achieve goals and performance.

The training staff of Execoach is certified by the ICF (International Coach Federation). Angel Martinez, Rosa Cañamero and Javier Carril are the founding and managing partners of Execoach.

***

Visit www.execoach.es for more information and details.

###

About Company:

Execoach is one of the best coaching companies that offer expert coaching, mentoring and leadership skills to companies and individuals. All the coaches are certified by the ICF (International Coach Federation). They provide shadow coaching, individual coaching, team coaching, mentoring and evaluation to make individuals and companies flourish in their respective fields.

Contact Information:

Execoach
Paseo Castellana 135 7º
28046 Madrid
Tel: 91 297 54 65