

DotComSecrets X is a new program designed to help new and experienced internet marketers make real money online without a big investment up front, according to ImInsiderReport.com.

DotComSecrets, a company that has appeared on NBC, CBS and even on the side of a Virgin Airlines jet, designed the program. While other agencies are charging as much as $5,000 for similar courses, DotComSecrets X is taking a new approach.

Students who sign up through the official website can get started on the innovative program for just $1. If participants are not making money after the first month, the courses can be cancelled with no questions asked.

"The beauty of this program is that you really don't have to pay unless you make money," said ImInsiderReport's editor. "As anyone who's tried to make money online knows, the up-front costs can be a real killer for those who are new to the marketing business."

To help prospective students get a feel for the program, the creators just posted a video featuring some insider tips to one of the most effective marketing tools on the planet, email marketing. Viewers can link to the video and get instant access to a three-step system designed to rapidly build an email list and start turning a profit immediately.

"Anyone with any experience in Internet marketing knows building an email list is the fastest track to profit," ImInsiderReport said. "Yet most people simply don't know where to get started when it comes to building an effective list. This program will steer those people in the right direction."

For those who sign up immediately, the creators of DotComSecrets X are offering 30 days of free traffic coaching to help people drive customers to their web properties. They'll also have access to an exclusive list of more than 80 places to get ads for less than $.30 a click.
