"The miracle of meeting people on the edge of life becomes more profound with a dog at your side."
Jon Katz

This year's featured speaker—bestselling author, journalist, and photographer Jon Katz—will share the humor and 'dog sense' he gained as he and his rescued border collie Izzy visited homes and nursing facilities in upstate New York. The two, specially trained as hospice volunteers, brought comfort to people who needed it most, time and again demonstrating the value of companionship—both human and canine.

The author of 21 books, including Izzy & Lenore: Two Dogs, an Unexpected Journey, and Me, Jon has written for The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, and Rolling Stone. He has worked for CBS News, The Boston Globe, The Washington Post, and the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Jon lives on Bedlam Farm in upstate New York with his wife, fiber artist Maria Wulf, his dogs Izzy, Lenore, and Frieda, and a menagerie of farm animals. His talk will include photographs and images from Bedlam Farm. To learn more about Jon, Maria, and the animals, visit www.bedlamfarm.com. Visit Jon's Hospice Journal at <http://hospice.bedlamfarm.com/>.

Tables and individual seats available.

Make your reservations early. This event sells out every year.
