USAA Bank Launches Alliance with Civil Air Patrol

USAA named exclusive credit card provider

SAN ANTONIO – USAA Bank and Civil Air Patrol are joining forces to introduce a customized credit card for CAP members and their families.

USAA Bank now offers the Civil Air Patrol USAA Rewards™ World MasterCard® credit card to help support the group's programs and activities. USAA Bank will make a contribution to CAP with every account opened or renewed, and each time cardholders make an eligible purchase.

"USAA was established 90 years ago to support military personnel and their families, so I am very pleased that USAA's affinity card is now available to CAP members," said Maj. Gen. Chuck Carr, national commander for Civil Air Patrol. "This program is important for two reasons – it is offered by one of the country's most well-respected banks and every purchase made by a CAP cardholder will benefit CAP. It is a win-win program for everyone."

"We're proud to be working with Civil Air Patrol to launch our new cobranded credit card," said Nathan McKinley, USAA vice president of military affinity. "The Civil Air Patrol has a rich history dating back to 1941 and we appreciate everything they do in service to our country."

In 2009, USAA opened its membership to all veterans who have honorably served and their eligible family members. To learn more about the USAA and CAP credit card program, call 1-800-435-4995 or visit usaa.com/cap.

About Civil Air Patrol

Civil Air Patrol is a federally chartered, nonprofit, humanitarian organization that also serves as the auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force. CAP was founded on Dec. 1, 1941, and its more than 61,000 volunteer members accomplish three missions: develop youth through a cadet program, educate Americans on the importance of aviation and space, and perform humanitarian and emergency services missions.
