

PRESS-RELEASE

The Levy Group Continues to Enjoy the Red Carpet Festivities Traveling to Support the Success of their Clients

Laughlin, NV --- The Levy Group, LLC continues to enjoy the summer sizzle well into the Fall Season as their client Harold Jackson III's award winning movies are premiered in yet another international film festival this year. Founder Prince Levy will attend the screenings with Harold for both his short film "The Gift" and the documentary, "BURN: The Evolution Of An American City" at the Laughlin International Film Festival (LIFF). "The Gift" is scheduled for a 5:45 PM screening on October 13th and Jackson's second award-winning documentary is scheduled for a 1:00 PM screening on October 14th. Both films will be screened at the Laughlin Stadium 9 Cinemas in theatre three and one respectively. The four day festival will start with the red carpet festivities on October 11th of this year. Additional festival information is available online: <http://www.laughlinfilmfestival.com/>.

Levy's client, the award-winning director Harold Jackson III recently attended the screenings of "The Gift" (Best Short) and "BURN: The Evolution Of An American City" (Best Documentary) at the Peachtree Village International Film Festival (PVIFF) in August. The festival was attended by a few big Hollywood names including Vivica Fox, Lisa Wu, Naturi Naughton and hosted by Omari Hardwick. Last month, Harold was also seen at the Harlem International Film Festival (HIFF), once again enjoying the winning streak of his work. Harold's award winning documentary, "BURN: The Evolution Of An American City" has been airing monthly on the Documentary Channel™. Catch the next viewing on November 2nd at 2:00 AM EST.

Another associate of The Levy Group is Adya Beasley a Videographer and a Producer for New Jersey's largest newspaper, The Star-Ledger. Adya's award winning documentary, "State of Reflection: New Jersey Ten Years After 9/11" was televised on PBS stations in the New York metropolitan area on the 10th anniversary of the terrorist attacks in 2001. The project, which was inspired by Star-Ledger photographer Jennifer Brown's video interviews with 9/11 families, examines how the tragedy has changed the physical and emotional landscape of New Jersey, and won a New York State Broadcasters Association Award for outstanding documentary in June of this year. The documentary will be shown at LIFF at 10:00 AM on October 13th at the Laughlin Stadium 9 Cinemas in theatre two. This will be the first time the documentary has entered an International Film Festival. "We're really looking forward to showing the documentary at the Laughlin International Film Festival and having the opportunity to share with others our exploration of the many ways New Jerseyans have and continue to honor the lost," says Beasley.

This year has brought growth for Prince Levy personally as he recently became a member of the GRAMMY Recording Academy, the Atlanta Chapter. Levy said, "Being a part of the GRAMMY Recording Academy is an honor. I am looking forward to learning more and getting involved in the GRAMMY Awards process."

About: The Levy Group, LLC, is an artist management company specializing in developing diversified management strategies for a wide range of clients. Founded in 2009 by Prince Levy and his wife Shondraya Grant-Levy, the Prince George's County, Maryland-based company represents clients nationwide. Levy said, "Our mission is to assist in the development and branding of our clients and we want to do so with the highest standards and integrity." The Levy Group's diversity in their client base extends from Grammy nominated musicians to independent film producers, motivational speakers, and fashion designers.

Divya Burton
Senior Consultant | Owner
714 | 914 | 7437

DivyaBurton@GRIDSConsulting.com
www.GRIDSConsulting.com

Think Outside the Lines | Not Just the Box SM

Find | Follow | Engage

###