

About Floxx

Floxx is a digital media agency based in London. They specialise in creating beautiful, functionally brilliant digital products for themselves and their clients from broad range of industries. The team has produced apps that have achieved international acclaim, such as Spotted and Mapchat.

About Ted Nash

Ted has been active online since the age of twelve. Ted became the first teenager to acquire over a million downloads on the App Store and founded Venevi Enterprises whilst at college. Venevi Enterprises later became Liquid5, with a renewed focus on mobile development and digital marketing. Liquid5 has created some of the most popular iOS Apps worldwide, achieving over 4,500,000 downloads and generating significant media coverage across the UK.
