PROVENANCE HOTELS MARK THE ‘END OF THE WORLD’ WITH MAYAN CALENDAR PROPHECY PACKAGES IN PORTLAND AND SEATTLE

October 29, 2012 – PORTLAND, Ore. – According to the Mayan calendar prophecy, the world is set to end on December 21, 2012. Inspired by the idea that time is short, Provenance Hotels are offering getaway packages designed to help travelers seize the day by taking a leap of faith off a bridge with Hotel Lucia in Portland or unleashing their inner rock star at Seattle’s Hotel Max.

If it really is end of the world as we know it, travelers had better get that last big adrenaline fix. What better way to go out with a bang than by bungee jumping off a 20-story private bridge high above a majestic class V river in the middle of a beautiful emerald green forest?

Those who book the Leap of Faith package at Portland’s chic Hotel Lucia will enjoy limousine transportation to and from the scenic span - it’s the highest jump site in the United States and located just an hour north of the city – and two jumps for two with the pros at Bungee Masters. Once safely back in town, fearless travelers can relive the adventure at Portland’s most buzzed-about new restaurant with a $100 gift certificate to Imperial, conveniently located right off the hotel lobby, and dine on inspired Pacific Northwest cuisine from James Beard Award and Iron Chef America winner, Vitaly Paley.

Hotel Lucia’s Leap of Faith package is available on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Jumps can be booked on Saturday or Sunday at noon. Packages need to be reserved at least 72 hours in advance at www.hotellucia.com/leap. Leap of Faith package rates start at $1039, plus tax.

Meanwhile, Hotel Max is daring travelers to live out their rock and roll fantasies while there’s still time with an uninhibited getaway to Seattle, the musical mecca that spawned Jimi Hendrix and all the grunge-era greats from Nirvana to Pearl Jam and beyond.

With Hotel Max’s Live Like a Rock Star package, travelers can channel their inner rock god with a visit to the state-of-the-art Jam Studio in the Sound Lab at the EMP Museum where they will be inspired by music’s most extensive memorabilia collection to record their own CD using real drums, guitars and keyboards. After laying down some tracks, guests will return to their room on Hotel Max’s fifth floor, which features larger than life photos of Seattle rock icons, and get ready for a night on the town. A chauffeured town car will take them to pier on Puget Sound for a gourmet dinner aboard a private yacht after which they’ll be dropped off at the Triple Door, Seattle’s best live music venue, with two tickets to that night’s show.

Hotel Max’s Live Like A Rock Star package needs to be booked at least 72 hours in advance at www.hotelmaxseattle.com/rockstar. Live Like A Rock Star package rates start at $679, plus tax.

Provenance Hotels’ Mayan Prophecy packages are available now through December 21, 2012.
