

RaeLynn's Boutique Make Wedding Dreams Come True with Tuxedos

RaeLynn's helps customers looking for fashionable tuxedos for fall wedding

November is one of the biggest months for fall weddings and RaeLynn's Boutique is helping customers make their big day a little less stressful by handling all tuxedo needs.

Since the boutique opened in 2008, their name has become more popular when searching for fashion tuxedos in the Indianapolis area.

"We have done more weddings this year than any other year," said Alison McDaniel, owner of RaeLynn's Boutique. "We already have wedding parties registered for March and April."

RaeLynn's carries two different tuxedo companies each with their own style and wide variety of choices for vest and tie colors.

"Dunhill and Geno's are excellent tux companies," said Allie Meagher, a RaeLynn's employee. "Our customers who come in with very specific colors almost always find a perfect match for their vests and ties."

RaeLynn's Boutique prides itself on being a small business and giving excellent customer service. They never fall short when working with wedding parties.

"If we can make the wedding day less stressful by taking care of the tuxedos and making sure they are picture perfect, we have done our job," said Karlie Stanton, a RaeLynn's employee.

The best advice RaeLynn's employees have for the bride and groom regarding tuxedos: Come in a few months before the wedding to pick out tuxedo styles and colors and let us handle the rest.
