

Hedge Fund Trader X: Review Blows The Lid Off Wall Street's Biggest Secrets

Summary: WealthSpringMarketing.com releases a review of Hedge Fund Trader X, a hedge fund coaching and apprenticeship program in which "Top Gun" trader Christopher Castroviejo reveals the specific trading and wealth management techniques he uses to generate millions of dollars in actual profit.

"Hedge Fund Trader X is a first of its kind hedge fund coaching and apprentice program that teaches investors and traders secrets known only by successful hedge fund managers," reports WealthSpringMarketing.com's Tiffany Hendricks. "The initial response Hedge Fund Trader X is remarkable. We've never seen this much buzz associated with the launch of a coaching program, and by all accounts it's shaping up to be one of the biggest investing and trading events of 2012."

Inside the Hedge Fund Trader X coaching and mentoring program students receive coaching from Christopher Castroviejo, billionaire George Soros' former next-door neighbor and tennis partner. In addition to having been an adviser to some of the biggest names in the hedge fund industry, Castroviejo has been the wealth manager for some of the wealthiest institutions and individuals on earth, including the Vatican Bank, J.P. Morgan & Company, the Emir of Kuwait, and even the Queen of England.

Mr. X's partner D.R. Barton Jr. P.E. MBA, co-authored the New York Times bestseller "Safe Strategies for Financial Freedom." and served as Chairman of Investors U, a division of Agora.

Hendricks explains the broad appeal Hedge Fund Trader X has for traders and investors:

"Not only did Christopher Castroviejo post an average annual return of 33% for almost a decade, but he actually posted a documented compounded average annual return of 37.59% in 2009, 2010 and 2011," says Hendricks. "The opportunity to learn from somebody at this level, isn't just uncommon, it's been all but unheard of up until now."

The Hedge Fund Trader X program includes daily trade alerts and setups, 12 months of access to the Insiders Investing Club, live webinar calls for 12 months, live market calls for 12 months, and access to the Hedge Fund Trader X 3 Day Live Event.

"Unbelievably, they actually allow members to 'test drive' the entire Hedge Fund Trader X program for a full two months risk free to make sure that they like it," says Hendricks. "A guarantee like that, makes this program a complete no-brainer for any serious trader or investor."

Enrollment in the program is extremely limited. Those wishing to access Hedge Fund Trader X click here.
