The National Association of Real Estate Brokers (NAREB) was formed in 1947 by African American real estate professionals out of a need to secure the right to equal housing opportunities, regardless of race, creed or color. NAREB has a vast network, (comprised of 90 chapters across the United States), of industry professionals including Realtists®, brokers and sales agents; pre and post counseling, loss mitigation and foreclosure experts; appraisers; property management, housing construction and development experts; and mortgage brokers/loan officers. For more than 60 years, NAREB has participated in meaningful legal challenges and has supported legislative initiatives that ensure the availability of fair and affordable housing for all Americans. NAREB is the oldest real estate trade association in the United States.
