Phoenix-Based Personal Injury Attorneys Change Name to Alex & Associates

PHOENIX ARIZONA, November 14, 2012 – Phoenix-based lawyer Andrew R. Alex proudly announced a change in his law firm name from ALEX & GAXIOLA P.C. to ALEX & ASSOCIATES P.C. effective September 1, 2012.

Mr. Alex, founding and managing partner, states, “We remain deeply committed to aggressively seeking just and fair compensation for every individual who has been injured. This change is designed to provide even more customer focus and energy to our clients.”

Alex & Associates Personal Injury trial attorneys have been serving the Phoenix-Scottsdale metropolitan area for over 27 years and have secured over $20 million in personal injury settlements from 2008 to 2012. Although a good settlement is preferable to a lawsuit, as experienced trial attorneys they are not reluctant to bring cases to trial to ensure fair compensation for their clients. Often the difference between a life of charity and a life of financial dignity is the caliber of your attorney.

Alex & Associates are proud to offer enhanced services as they diligently represent their clients. Personal injury practice areas include: tractor trailer [big rig] accidents, auto, motorcycle and bicycle accidents, construction accidents, dog bites, medical malpractice, catastrophic injury and wrongful death, pedestrian accidents, defective products, water accidents [e.g., boats, swimming pools], child injuries, head-neck and spinal cord injuries. Alex & Associates also provide representation in the areas of criminal defense, civil, healthcare and business law in the Arizona Administrative, Superior and Appellate courts.

Founding Partner, Andrew R. Alex began practicing law in Phoenix in 1973. Second in his class, Alex received his Juris Doctorate in Law in 1974 from Chicago-Kent College of Law and also a B.S. in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh.

“We remain deeply committed to aggressively seeking just and fair compensation for every individual who has been injured. This change is designed to provide even more customer focus and energy to our clients.”

-- Andrew R. Alex, Founding Partner --

From 1974 -1979 Mr. Alex served as a deputy county attorney for Maricopa County, Arizona prosecuting 55 major felony cases. Mr. Alex was one of the first in Arizona to use a forensic hypnotist to identify a defendant and also initiated DUI and alcohol related prosecution standards prior to the enactment of current Arizona legislation.

Mr. Alex, a member of the State Bar of Arizona, the American Bar Association, the American Trial Lawyers Association and the Arizona Trial Lawyers Association, is actively involved in his community and regularly donates legal services for children, court-protected persons and the financially disadvantaged. Mr. Alex has, also served on local committees to maintain integrity of desert, water quality and environment.
