Intelligence

Separating the essential from the 'white noise'

Max Security Intelligence (MSI) provides critical intelligence information and assessments, integrating deep local knowledge by ground contacts, social networks and traditional media. Our intelligence reports will assist you in taking Proactive safety measures, making informed decisions, saving money, and most importantly, they will help you ensure the security and safety of your most valuable assets.

We emphasize concise and timely reporting with a focus on solid assessments and practical recommendations in order to support your Business Continuity and Travel Security.

Our Methodology

Max-Security Intelligence combines modern technology with proven intelligence gathering techniques in order to adapt to each of our operating environments. Our analysts triangulate and assess information from local press, blogs, social media, and reliable ground sources, in order to have a full overview of events. Our intelligence team integrates the knowledge and experience of our ground operatives with expert analysts - providing our clients with a comprehensive and practical security perspective.

MSI's intelligence reports and assessments are not focused solely on 'security' but on a wide scope of events affecting Business Continuity, such as:

- Terror Attacks
- Natural Disasters
- Armed Conflict
- Health Hazards
- Civil Unrest (Political, Ethnic, Religious)
- Emerging Militant Groups and Social Movements

Intelligence Products

- Custom reports – 'Tailored' according to your specific needs, location, vulnerabilities, etc.
- The Middle East package – Including: Alert reports, Regional Summaries and Special coverage reports.
- Travel Security – Travel briefs, country profiles, alerts and reports.

Max Security Academy

Max Security Solutions Training Academy provides professional, comprehensive, practical training.

Our programs fuse between the Israeli knowledge and methodologies for counter-terrorism and security, and our instructor's extensive operational background in the official and private sectors. Our instructors are an integral part of Max's operational teams. Their knowledge is derived from extensive fieldwork and real scenarios. They are active operational agents who are committed to the integration of field work and training.

The Academy runs various security training programs, security management seminars and courses.

We make a thorough assessment of the client's needs and operations and then recommend the most suitable training solution. Once the exact requirement is established Max provides all the necessary physical training and operational practices to establish and operate the client's security team; whether it is establishing a new Special Forces unit, training a multi-national corporation's security staff or private security professionals.

Our training emphasizes the virtues of a resourceful and 'thinking' combatant, allowing graduates to work in unfamiliar scenarios and to operate in environments with high levels of uncertainty.

The following are selected courses and seminars offered by our Training Academy:

- Executive protection, Advanced Security Socialist.
- Counter-Terrorism Seminars and practical training
- Intelligence Training (Humint, Desk)
- Krav-Maga, Protective Driving, Medical Care in emergency situations
- Aviation Security Trainings (management, operatives..)
- Surveillance Detection and Disruption
- Security management, profiling, security awareness seminars and more.
