Versonce Asset Management Seeks Motivated Partners as Authorized Relationship Managers

Reputable banking company seeks to expand its talent pool through new hires

ZURICH, British Virgin Islands — Versonce Asset Management, a leading banking institution, is seeking motivated groups or individuals to become authorized Relationship Managers.

With the announcement, the company is seeking candidates with high standards of excellence in service and communication, giving them the potential to earn high-level commissions in a sophisticated sales environment. Individuals with comprehensive experience in financial services can now apply, especially those who are self-motivating and thrive in an entrepreneurial atmosphere.

“Individuals who exhibit exceptional communication skills and a desire to go above and beyond expectations will find this opportunity very satisfying,” said Richard Rexroth of Versonce Asset Management. “We are able to provide an environment in which personal growth is widely attainable and success is firmly praised.”

Authorized Relationship Managers are tasked with attracting new clients and closing new accounts, which is done in the form of an escrow deposit in a Versonce Collateral program or a deposit into a private trust. Clients are generated through leads based on geography and specialty focus.

The company awards compensation in several forms, including a $5,000 advance on any funds placed in escrow in the Versonce Collateral program. Relationship Managers will also receive a one percent advance on all deposits placed with Versonce Private Trust Banking and unique pricing of three percent per year for all Collateral issuances.

“We are looking to attract top-tier of talent, which is why we’re willing to offer some of the best incentives in the industry,” said Rexroth. “Versonce Asset Management is known for providing a superior level of service, and we’re looking to continue that record of excellence with Relationship Managers who bring a strong work ethic to our company.”

Interested candidates who meet the criteria for this position should apply by submitting an email to hr@versonce.com. Candidates should attach a current résumé with prior applicable work experience, a copy of their passport and a valid current address with contact information.

Versonce Asset Management has a boutique approach and special perspective that sets it apart from other banking organizations. Based in the British Virgin Islands and with a focus on managing private wealth and parlaying capital into secure power investments, the company is a sterling partner in high-level financial enterprising. It also specializes in letters of credit, proof of funds and bank guarantees, as well as many other traditional banking services.
