VAIL RESORT OFFERS GUESTS A LIFT WITH NEW SKI, STAY AND SAVE DEAL

Vacationers at Vail Marriott Mountain Resort can chill in their deluxe accommodations and enjoy two adult lift tickets daily

Vail, CO – Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow! The Vail Marriott Mountain Resort wants skiers to know they've got a place to go where they don't have to blow a ton of green this season.

The Vail ski resort plans to offer guests a deal that is so delightful that they won't be able to say no to three or more nights nestled at the base of Vail Mountain. The Vail resort's Ski, Stay and Save Package provides visitors with deluxe accommodations from $273 to $1,464 per night along with two adult lift tickets daily – a savings of $160 to $218 each day depending on the week.

Skiers and snowboarders who don't bring their own gear can make their first tracks to the onsite Charter Sports, where rates on ski packages and gear are discounted for guests of the Vail resort. The shop also offers all kinds of apparel to keep guests warm as temperatures fall during the nighttime hours.

Outdoor enthusiasts can hit the slopes – be it bunny or black diamond – by trekking three minutes to the Eagle-Bahn Gondola for easy access to Vail Mountain. At 5,289 acres, the largest single mountain ski resort in the United States features seven bowls that will challenge anyone from the beginner to seasoned adventurer. Group or private lessons also can be booked for never-evers so they can learn and hone their skills for an ultimate experience on the slopes.

After hours of enjoying the area's fresh powder in some chilling temperatures, guests seeking warmth can make their way back to the Vail ski resort to enjoy a hot toddy or two (or any other libation) at Avalanche Pub or take a dip in a relaxing hot tub or outdoor heated pool. The Golden Leaf Spa offers steam rooms and therapy baths for those seeking respite from the elements as well as a full range of services including body scrubs, massages, manicures and pedicures for in-between outdoor activities and dining at the all-American 7one5. The casual restaurant offers a full menu of modern American cuisine with special low-fat and low-carb options for those looking to burn a few calories while on vacation.

Guests will find their warmest welcomes in one of 283 rooms and 61 suites that feature the comforts of home with luxuriously appointed beds, high-tech amenities and a multitude of first-class services. Whether staying in a standard guest room or deluxe suite, down comforters, custom duvets, cotton-rich linens and plenty of fluffy down and feather pillows will lull the tired and weary to sleep. High-speed Internet, 37-inch flat-screen TVs, soundproof windows, comfortable robes, in-room coffeemakers and safes, fireplaces in some rooms, marble bathrooms and mini refrigerators are a few of the high-end amenities that raise the benchmark for Vail hotel deals. Twenty-four-hour room service, valet dry cleaning and evening turndown service also are available.

To avoid frightful rates, guest can take advantage of the Ski, Stay and Save Package by booking their reservations online using promotional code SKI or by calling 800-721-6996 and asking for promotional code SKI now through April 14.
