Marabella Commercial Finance, Inc. Interviews Robert Roscoe of Walgreens at San Diego Western Division ICSC Sept 19, 2012

CHRISTIAN MARABELLA OF MARABELLA COMERCIAL FI-NANCE, INC. HAD AN OPPORTU-NITY TO INTERVIEW ROBERT ROSCOE AT THE WESTERN DI-VISION ICSC GOLF TOURNA-MENT THAT TOOK PLACE ON SEPTEMBER 19, 2012 AT THE CORONADO GOLF COURSE IN CORONADO, CA. THE FOL-LOWING IS SOME OF THAT IN-TERVIEW;

Chris Marabella: How will the $6.7 Billion stake in Alliance Boots affect Walgreens?

Robert Roscoe: It should not have much impact. It does make Walgreens a truly international company.

Chris Marabella: Is Alliance Boots a pharmacy chain out of Europe?

Robert Roscoe: Alliance Boots is a European chain with also some presence in Asia. Boots has 3500 stores and is an older company than Walgreens. Alliance Boots is about 135 years old and Walgreens is about 115 years old. This will give Walgreens an international foot print and will give Wal-greens a lot of synergies without the overlap. The immediate benefit that Walgreens receives from the Boots transaction is their substantial buying office in Hong Kong. Alliance Boots has a very good presence in Hong Kong and Walgreens will be able to leverage that resource and have a better cost of goods which will have a positive effect on Walgreens cost structure. In the trade publications they predict that there will be about one billion dollars worth of cost savings once Walgreens is combined with Alliance Boots. Walgreen will be doing this in two steps. Walgreens closed on the first part of the transaction a few weeks ago which gives Walgreens a 45% stake in Alliance Boots and Walgreens has the right to buy another 55% in Alliance Boots in a certain amount of time.

Chris Marabella: What geographic area in Europe does Alliance Boots comprise?

Robert Roscoe: I can't speak to Alliance Boots growth plan. Europe is a more mature market than United States. Boots has grown by way of acquisitions as well and organically. The company started in the United Kingdom but Alliance Boots is currently based in Italy.
