BURBANK AIRPORT HOTEL TRANSFORMS UNIVERSAL DEAL INTO EXTRAORDINARY PACKAGE

Two tickets to Universal Studios Hollywood, complimentary breakfast among incentives from Los Angeles Marriott Burbank Airport

Burbank, CA – When it comes to one of the deals being offered by the Los Angeles Marriott Burbank Airport, there's definitely more than meets the eye.

The Burbank airport hotel hopes guests will take advantage of its Transform Your Stay Package to celebrate Universal Studio's "Transformers: The Ride – 3D." There's no need to disguise the highlight of the Burbank hotel's deal: deluxe accommodations starting at $299, plus a number of special incentives. Perks include a pair of two-day tickets to Universal Studios Hollywood (a $160 value), breakfast for two at the hotel's Daily Grill and complimentary shuttle service to and from the theme park with an advance reservation.

Autobots – aka guests – can soak up some of Southern California's radiant sun while leisurely checking out the upper and lower lots in the entertainment capital of LA. Universal Studios features a real working movie studio; numerous shops, restaurants and cinemas; thrilling shows and a behind-the-scenes Studio Tour which explores Hollywood's most famous back lot and includes the award-winning King Kong 360 3-D adventure. The park also sports more than 16 rides, including Transformers. The motion-based ride fuses high-definition 3-D media with flight simulation technology for a mind-blowing adventure that puts visitors in the middle of the ultimate war zone. The attraction pays tribute to the "Transformers" movie trilogy which debuted in 2007.

After the first of two action-packed days destroying the evil forces of the Decepticons, vacationers can travel back to the hotel near Burbank airport and relax in one of 488 stylishly designed rooms featuring large comfortable beds, marble bathrooms and spacious desks. Technology-savvy visitors will enjoy high-speed Internet access along with consoles that allow personal music devices to be played through their room's 32-inch LCD TV.

Early risers can then transform their hungry stomachs into full tummies with two complimentary breakfasts at the Daily Grill. The classic and casual American eatery serves everything from omelets and cereal to bagels and lox with French toast, pancakes, muffins and more also on the menu.

The hotel's Transform Your Stay Package is available now through April 18. Guests should use promotional code THM when booking their stays.
