The IHRDC Experience Combines Learning Excellence and Attention to Your Needs

For more than 40 years, IHRDC has been a worldwide leader in training and competency development for the international oil and gas industry. Our Instructional Programs, offered in major international locations, have gained a reputation for excellence for their engaging instructional format, superior instructors, and attention to participant needs. Many of our programs are offered annually in Boston, one of the world's great cities, with its outstanding cultural and historic attractions. During these programs, participants enjoy a first-rate learning experience, stimulating social events, regional sightseeing, as well as invaluable networking opportunities.
