Dresser & Associates Named to 2012 Sage Chairman's Club and President's Circle

Sage HRMS Business Partner, Dresser & Associates, is Chairman's Club Winner, President's Circle Winner, and a Top Performer.

Scarborough, ME—December 12, 2012—Dresser & Associates, a premier Sage HRMS business partner, was honored with multiple awards from Sage related to its performance in the 2012 fiscal year. The company is the winner of the 2012 President's Circle Top Product Sales award for Sage HRMS and was selected to the 2012 Chairman's Club. In addition, Dresser & Associates was named a Top Performer for Sage HRMS. This is the fifth year in a row Dresser & Associates has earned such distinctions.

Sage rewards partners for their diligence in representing Sage products and consistently going above and beyond to achieve excellence throughout the year. The President's Circle rewards partners who achieve the top spots of specified award categories. The Chairman's Club is a level of distinction for exceptional Sage business partners intended to provide special recognition to high performing business partners. Dresser & Associates joins just 19 other partners across all of Sage's business levels in the U.S. named to the Chairman's Club. The Top Performer award is based upon the highest level of combined total product and service revenues achieved.

"I am proud to accept these awards on behalf of the entire team at Dresser & Associates," said Mark Dresser, president of Dresser & Associates. "Our staff works hard every day to provide our clients with business management software and services that add value and drive efficiency. Sage software solutions, thanks to their power, functionality, and quick return on investment, are an integral part of our offering."

Chairman's Club and President's Circle award recipients for 2012 will receive further recognition from Sage at an executive event with the Sage executive team during Sage Summit 2013.
