

Save My Marriage Today: Review Examining Marriage Saving Course Released by ConquerHisHeart.com

Summary: ConquerHisHeart.com releases a review of the new "Save My Marriage Today Premium Home Study Course" for people who want to save their failing marriages before it's too late.

"Save My Marriage Today is a program we are very excited to spread the word about," reports ConquerHisHeart.com's Sean Roman. "Our website offers information on a range of relationship issues and many of our visitors actually come to our site because they are desperately searching for help with their failing marriages. Needless to say, we're always on the look out for new resources that we can recommend to help them out as they cope with these difficult circumstances."

Save My Marriage Today was co-created by renowned relationship experts Andrew Rusbach and Amy Waterman who have together helped thousands of men and women around the world to overcome their marital difficulties and relationship problems using proven communication and conflict resolution techniques. In addition to Save My Marriage Today, the duo has collaborated on several other training programs including 'Why Men Pull Away' and 'Conversation Chemistry'.

Roman explains Save My Marriage Today's widespread popularity:

"Rusbach and Waterman are both well known and respected in their field," says Roman. "So, people looking for a trusted source feel reassured by their long track record of success. Also, the many success stories that have been generated by this program show that, at least for some people this seems to be working wonders." The course, which was initially released as a set of ebooks has recently been expanded into a full home training course including a 12-part video series hosted by Rusbach, a written course, as well as four additional courses delving deeply into difficult relationship issues many modern couples face: dealing with financial problems, depression, addiction, and infidelity. Customers also receive additional interviews with relationship experts and complimentary email coaching.

"This is by far the most comprehensive program I've seen on avoiding unnecessary break ups and divorces," says Roman. "As a guy who has been divorced, I can tell you it's no fun, and I definitely recommend anyone, man or woman, young or old who is facing that prospect to get all the information they can, so that they can get some control over the situation."
