

Mississippi Home Security Customers of Elite Security Services Now Enjoying Fire Safety with the Recently Lunched Smoke Detection Device.

Elite Security Services has just added yet another advanced device to their impressive range of Mississippi home security packages. The recently introduced smoke detection device provides protection to the homeowners from fire hazards without any additional expenditure. This device is now being offered with all service plans from the company throughout Mississippi.

Elite Security Services has just introduced their new smoke detection device to make further progress in the Mississippi home security industry. This advanced device is now offering reliable protection to the customers of the company from fire related hazards. It may be recalled that Elite Security Services is one of the most acclaimed security service providers in the country with a strong service network in all states. The company presently offers low cost home security service in Canada, too. Elite Security Services is known particularly for providing low cost security packages with all advanced features. Their domestic packages start from a monthly rental of only $35.99.

Elite Security Services' recent addition to their Mississippi home security systems is one of the latest technological innovations in the industry. Smoke detection devices are one of the most basic components of home security systems. These devices alert homeowners by acting as an indication of fire by detecting the sources of fire. The detection of smoke is generally accomplished by photoelectric or ionization process. However, the functionality of different smoke detection devices can vary a great deal. The one launched recently by Elite Security Services can even detect the sources of fire that are concealed within the walls.

Announcing the launch of the device, the owner of the company Mr. Paul stated, "This device is extremely useful because it detects the source of fire and informs you immediately by sounding the siren". The introduction of this device has already received noteworthy response from the Mississippi home security industry. The company sources have informed that the company is about to announce further enhancements of their systems in Mississippi within a few months.

About the Company: Elite Security Services is a rapidly growing company in the home security industry. They offer highly efficient and economical home security solutions in America and Canada.

Contact

Paul Shakuri

Phone: 800-880-9569

Website: <http://www.YourAlarmNow.com>