

Bookit@ShortsTravel

64% of all corporate travelers search outside of the corporate booking tool adding time, frustration and lack of trust for your corporate travel program.

The problem with current booking solutions

“Constant innovation in booking tools and interfaces make inflexible platforms unrealistic, resulting in two primary strategies for adapting shop/book: Modernize the current tools and extend access to new channels.” ~ Corporate Travel Manifesto

Make your program traveler centric

Bookit@ShortsTravel makes your corporate travel program more traveler centric. Empower your travelers to shop consumer websites or mobile apps and makes it easier to book through your TMC. Travel Managers maintain control of every booking’s policy and travel data through the TMC...and they know travelers can’t say “I found it cheaper on the internet”!
