

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

| Maryland conference centers | Chesapeake Bay wedding venue | Maryland wedding venue | Intimate weddings in Maryland |

Website: www.AspenWyeRiverMarriott.com

ASPEN WYE RIVER ANNOUNCES NEW WEDDING PACKAGES AND MENUS FOR 2013
Secluded Marriott Conference Center offers perfect location for intimate weddings in Maryland.

Queenstown, MD – The Aspen Wye River Conference Center on Maryland’s Eastern Shore has just unveiled new menus and wedding packages for intimate weddings in Maryland in 2013.

The Chesapeake Bay wedding venue, managed by Marriott Hotels & Resorts, hosts a limited number of special weddings each year and has a few key dates open for 2013.

Overlooking the gleaming Wye River on more than 1,100 acres of dense woodlands and rolling pastures, the Maryland wedding venue provides the perfect atmosphere for intimate ceremonies for groups of 30 to 150 people. From the stately Georgian manor of Houghton House and modern comforts of the River House on Wye River to an orchard of cherry blossom trees, the Maryland conference center’s elegant grounds and facilities are poised to host everything from rehearsal dinners to wedding ceremonies.

Professional wedding planners are available and will help create a memorable event whether the wedding party has special requests or takes advantage of the Aspen Wye River’s two new packages:

Stately Elegance: $130 per person

- Champagne toast
- Four-hour open house bar
- One reception display
- Selection of three passed hors d’oeuvres
- Three-course dinner – salad, duet entrée and signature dessert
- Coffee and tea service

Contemporary Chic: $150 per person

- Champagne toast
- Four-hour premium open bar
- Two reception display
- Selection of four passed hors d’oeuvres
- Three-course dinner – salad, duet entrée and signature dessert
- Wine service with dinner
- Coffee and tea service

The newly created menus for 2013 include duets of crab stuffed chicken breast with creamy mushroom sauce and seared Chilean sea bass with lemon emulsion along with Petit filet mignon with port wine sauce and Maryland style crab cake with beurre blanc. The refreshed hors d'oeuvres menus include regional favorites of spicy crab salad on cucumber rounds and mini Maryland crab cakes with remoulade sauce. Peking duck rolls and tuna tartar in wonton crisps also have been added.

For information on the new wedding packages, visit www.marriott.com/bwiwy, download the menu here or call 410-827-7400.

About the Aspen Wye River Conference Centers

Located in Queenstown, MD, along the picturesque Wye River on Maryland's Eastern Shore, the Aspen Wye River Conference Center is an ideal place for corporate team building excursions, meetings and events. Featuring expertly landscaped grounds and a Japanese tranquility garden, this unique hotel has become a favorite place for retreats because of its resort-like atmosphere. Not only will guests enjoy elegant and refined East Coast private meeting facilities but they also will discover recreation in the outdoor pool, over a game of tennis or volleyball, on kayaking or mountain bike tours or around the BBQ area. Even the state-of-the-art meeting facilities capture an air of luxury and recreation, with thoughtful amenities and 7,400 square feet of flexible space. An additional 1,000 acres of outdoor space also is available. An ideal choice for social events and business meetings alike, the Aspen Wye River Conference Center features a dedicated event services manager and certified wedding planner with a supporting team of culinary experts to make any gathering truly memorable. After the event or meeting, guests will retire in stately Georgian accommodations with rustic furniture and modern touches. A convenient location near the Baltimore-Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI), Reagan National Airport and Newnam Field Airport, this East Coast offsite meeting destination is as accessible as it is elegant.