MARRIOTT HOTELS SPONSOR NATIONAL WESTERN STOCK SHOW AND RODEO IN DENVER

Denver area Marriott hotels offer special rates to visitors heading to premier western show

Denver, CO – It's time to saddle up for the 2012 National Western Stock Show and Rodeo in Denver. As a proud sponsor of the premier Western show, Marriott International has announced special rates at four nearby hotels: Residence Inn Denver Downtown, SpringHill Suites Denver Aurora/Fitzsimons, Courtyard Denver Stapleton and Courtyard Denver Tech Center.

These four North Denver hotels invite travelers to enjoy comfortable accommodations throughout the multi-day event, which takes place January 12-27, 2013, at the National Western Complex. Every stay at these National Western Stock Show hotels includes free parking, complimentary high-speed Internet access and complimentary breakfast at Residence Inn and SpringHill Suites hotels. Rates range between $99 and $119 per night. Those interested in the special rate must book accommodations now through www.nationalwesternhotels.com.

Located just minutes from the North Denver hotels, the National Western Complex has housed the rodeo and stock show for years. The original event, started in 1906, brought in thousands of spectators, and ever since the show has grown. Now, the National Western Stock Show features 15,000 horses, cattle, sheep, swine, goats, llamas and alpacas along with 350 vendors selling all manner of goods. Exciting rodeo events take place throughout the event, from bronco riding to bull roping.

Experience the excitement of Colorado's largest tradeshow and horse show. Book a stay at one of the four North Denver Marriott hotels today.
