

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

| Maryland Conference Center | Retreats in Maryland | Eastern Shore Conference seminars | East Coast off-site meetings |

Website: AspenWyeRiverMarriott.com

Secluded Aspen Wye River Conference Center Provides New Packages for Meetings & Retreats in Maryland

Maryland Conference Center hotel offers peaceful location for corporate conferences and seminars, as well as new deals for groups looking for East Coast off-site meeting venues.

Queenstown, MD – Maryland and Washington D.C. meeting planners looking for a safe, secluded and incredibly private conference center will enjoy over 1,100 acres of dense woodlands and rolling pastures at the Aspen Wye River Conference Center in Queenstown, Maryland, just 60 miles from Washington, DC.

Currently, this Maryland Conference Center offers two meeting packages: the All-Inclusive Day Meeting Package and Complete Meeting Package. The Day Meeting Package starts at $105 per person, per day and includes state-of-the-art meeting rooms, monitors or projectors depending on the size of the group and serves an extensive breakfast, lunch & dinner buffet with all-day break stations. The Complete Meeting Package includes all of the amenities of the Day

Meeting Package but with the inclusion of Deluxe Guest Rooms and starts at $319 per person, per day. The Aspen Wye River's professional meeting planners will work with guest to create unique and engaging meetings at its Eastern Shore conference seminar facilities.

Set along the sparkling Wye River, this Maryland conference center provides the perfect location for team building exercises, meetings or seminars in a distraction-free environment. Associated with the Aspen Institute, this retreat in Maryland includes state-of-the-art conference facilities with access to leadership programs, seminars and Certified Outward Bound course. This East Coast off-site meetings site inspires creativity, communication, and fosters great thinking and breakthrough ideas.

The Aspen Wye River Conference Center is a private retreat in Maryland for groups, conferences or special events and features two mansions, the Houghton House, a stately Georgian mansion and the River House, a contemporary estate where groups have total access to the buildings.

With 7,400 square feet of meeting and event space, the Aspen Wye River Conference Centers has become one of the most popular destinations for East Coast off-site meetings. While other facilities may offer the same amount of meeting space, few can boast the beauty of the surrounding area, professionalism of staff, and robust event menus to be found at the Maryland conference center.

For additional information, or to reserve either of the Maryland Conference Center's deals, visit AspenWyeRiverMarriott.com or call 410-827-7400.

About the Aspen Wye River Conference Centers

Located in Queenstown, MD along the picturesque Wye River on Maryland's Eastern Shore, the Aspen Wye River Conference Centers is an ideal place for Maryland corporate team building excursion, meetings and events. Featuring expertly landscaped grounds and a Japanese tranquility garden, this unique hotel has become a favorite place for retreats, due to its resort like atmosphere. Not only will groups enjoy elegant and refined East Coast private meeting facilities, but guests will also discover recreation in the outdoor pool, over a game of tennis or volleyball, on kayaking or mountain bike tours, or around the BBQ area. Even the state-of-the-art meeting facilities capture an air of luxury and recreation, with thoughtful meeting amenities and 7,400 square feet of space. An additional 1,000 acres of outdoor space is also available. An ideal choice for social events and business meetings alike, the Aspen Wye River Conference Centers features a dedicated event services manager and a certified wedding planner, with a supporting cast of culinary experts to make any gathering truly memorable. After the event or meeting, guests will retire in stately Georgian accommodations, with rustic furniture and modern touches. A convenient location near the BWI Airport, Reagan National Airport and Newnam Field Airport, this East Coast off-site meeting destination is as accessible as it is elegant.