2012 KLAS® Rankings Name Corepoint Health Producer of #1 Interface Engine for Fourth-Consecutive Year

Corepoint Integration Engine earns highest satisfaction score among all medical interface engines. 100% of customers surveyed would purchase product again

(FRISCO, Texas) – Jan. 8, 2013 - Corepoint Integration Engine was named the top interface engine in the 2012 Best in KLAS Awards: Software & Services report, marking the first time an interface engine has earned the top spot four consecutive years.

The 2012 Best in KLAS Awards: Software & Services is a summary of performance data over the past 12 months collected from healthcare IT executives and professionals. Included in the report is a ranking of the top vendors overall, as well as a ranking of the top vendors in key areas of performance.

According to the report, Corepoint Integration Engine received the highest overall score in the Interface Engine market segment (97 out of 100) and the highest overall score on product quality among interface engines. Additionally, 100 percent of surveyed customers said they would purchase the product again.

Corepoint Health CEO Phil Guy said Corepoint Integration Engine has earned the award the past four years thanks to strong customer partnerships and a product that consistently delivers outstanding performance.

"We take health data integration seriously, and we are grateful for the recognition and support of our customers. Our customers keep us centered on our purpose of delivering a better way to integrate patient data with applications and providers," Guy said. "With the increasing importance of health data exchange, reliability and trust are two qualities that health organizations demand of their IT departments."

As healthcare data exchanges have rapidly increased, Corepoint Integration Engine has shown it can scale to users' requirements and demands to seamlessly deliver and integrate health data.

"Everyone at Corepoint Health works to deliver an empowering interface engine that helps health IT professionals build the IT infrastructure of a modern healthcare system," said Guy.
