Denver Marriott Tech Center Bundles Amenities In New Deal For Business Travelers

Perks of Denver hotel package include complimentary high-speed Internet access, local and domestic long-distance calls and buffet breakfast for one

Denver, CO – Business travelers flying into Denver between now and March have to bundle up from the cold weather, but the Denver Marriott Tech Center Hotel plans to bundle up, too, with its latest deal that will warm the hearts of professionals and heat up the competition in the Mile High City.

The Greenwood Village, CO, hotel's Business Boost Package groups some of its most requested amenities with deluxe accommodations for rates starting at $199 per Monday through Friday night.

Free high-speed Internet access, local and domestic long-distance calls, and a complimentary breakfast buffet are among the perks included in the deal.

With the Business Boost Package, executives who stay at the Denver Tech Center hotel will have access to a full-service business center with printing and faxing capabilities as well as high-speed Internet access throughout the facility. Located in the heart of Denver, the hotel is convenient to Interstates 25 and 225 as well as Centennial Airport, so professionals can conduct business with ease during office hours.

Once off the clock, guests can enjoy dining in Greenwood Village as well as shopping at Cherry Creek and Park Meadows malls. The centers feature more than 200 stores and restaurants including The Cheesecake Factory, California Pizza Kitchen, Brio Tuscan Grille, Elway's, Fresh Healthy Café and Kona Grill. Cherry Creek also has an eight-screen AMC movie theater with the latest releases playing on multiple screens.

Travelers who would prefer not to take chances with Denver winter weather can stay in and imbibe a refreshing micro-brewed beer or ale while enjoying a great American burger, sesame chicken salad, pan-seared Rocky Mountain trout, 12-ounce New York strip or crispy boom boom shrimp at Lift Restaurant and Lounge. The popular local spot features a lodge-like feel with comfortable wood and leather chairs and couches along with flat-screen TVs strategically placed throughout. An indoor pool and hot tub will be welcome relaxation after a high-energy workout in the Denver Tech center hotel's state-of-the art fitness center. The facility sports Life Fitness cardio equipment including treadmills with personal TVs, elliptical machines, Stairmasters and stationary bikes along with ample free weights.

The Greenwood Village, CO, hotel's luxurious guest rooms will raise the expectations of business travelers with their one king or two double beds topped with 300-thread count sheets, down comforters and custom duvets. Spacious work desks with ergonomic chairs, phones with voicemail, complimentary high-speed Internet and plenty of electrical outlets are the perfect amenities for the busy professional, while the relaxing guest will take comfort in marble bathrooms featuring Bath and Body Works products, 37-inch flat-screen TVs, Sony alarm clocks, mini-refrigerators and in-room coffeemakers.

Leaders needing an early morning energy boost can sample American fare at Lift Restaurant and Lounge and sip on Starbucks coffee or tea from Front Range Trading Post before heading off on another business adventure.

Professionals can book the Business Boost Package for Monday through Friday night stays by using promotional code BP6. The Denver hotel package is available now through March 31.
