Lovers embarking on any treatment at the spa resort in Las Vegas, voted by Condé Nast Traveler readers as a Top 5 Las Vegas Resort in November 2012, should spend an hour preparing for their experience by partaking in the Aquae Sulis ritual. The routine begins with calming hot or stimulating cold plunges followed by a soak in the warm float pool. Spa-goers will then move through six invigorating chambers in the outdoor hydrotherapy circuit pool. A steam and sauna will help guests expel toxins before a cascading waterfall shower relaxes them in preparation for their treatment.

The 40,000-square-foot Aquae Sulis Spa at the Las Vegas resort pampers all of its guests with luxurious robes, comfortable sandals, private lockers and full bath amenities. The retail shop offers gift certificates perfect for Valentine's Day so a special someone can enjoy high-end face and body products from Hylunia, Pure Fiji, Farmhouse Fresh, Epicuren and Moroccan Oil as well as comfy clothing and additional services from the top-notch facility.
