

CONSUMER'S BILL OF RIGHTS

- Has the right to know the fence installed will be the fence that is specified.
- Has the right to know that all workers on their project will be legal documented workers.
- Has the right to an installation started when promised with weather permitting.
- Has the right to know that the installation has a labor warranty from the installing company.
- Has the right to report improper installation practices to the North American Fence Contractor's Association Board of Directors.
- Has the right to have the fence installed properly and according to industry standards or better.
- Has the right to know the installing company carries Workman's Compensation Insurance and General Liability Insurance.
- Has the right to know that the member company has all the required licenses required by law.