Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Exudes Love With Limited-Time Deal For Couples

LAX luxury hotel's package includes deluxe accommodations, cocktails and breakfast for two, Navigator Guide, late check-out time

Los Angeles, CA – Romance is in the air at the Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel, and everywhere guests look around they'll feel the love.

Every sight and every sound at the Los Angeles luxury hotel will encourage couples to rekindle their love while embracing a special Valentine's Day weekend deal. The Live Life To Discover ... Love Package includes deluxe accommodations starting at $199 per night at the luxury hotel in Los Angeles, as well as breakfast for two either in room or at 96th Street Bistro, cocktails for two, a special Renaissance floral arrangement and candle, sweet treats (chocolates or cupcakes), a Couples Navigator Guide, postcard and late check-out privileges.

Upon arrival, the LAX luxury hotel's navigator, Kathy Adriance, will have a customized guide ready for couples who want to check out some of the most romantic things to do, see, eat and experience in the Los Angeles area. Adriance has lived in the City of Angels for more than 20 years and spends her free time soaking up local culture, finding out-of-the-way restaurants, scoping out one-of-a-kind shops and visiting world-class museums.

Couples will discover plenty of romantic things to do together, like savoring incredible Italian food, indulging in a bottle of divine wine at Venice Beach Wines, taking a memorable ride on the Santa Monica Pier carousel, going for a romantic spin in a chauffeured vintage car at the Automobile Driving Museum, reflecting on life at Kenneth Hahn State Park's lotus pond, or simply enjoying the Los Angeles luxury hotel's more than $14 million internationally acclaimed art collection.

Lovers returning from an exhilarating night on the town can enjoy a nightcap in the chic Lobby Bar or get a 360-degree view of the city and watch planes land at Los Angeles International Airport at the Helipad Lounge, one of the features that distinctively sets the Renaissance apart from other luxury hotels in Los Angeles.

One of 441 sophisticated rooms on 11 floors will whisk couples into pure comfort with one king or two double plush mattresses topped with custom duvets, cotton-rich linens, down comforters and plenty of fluffy feather and down pillows. Flat-screen TVs, iPod docks, high-speed Internet access (for an additional fee), soundproof windows, mini-refrigerators and in-room safes and coffeemakers are among high-end amenities guests can expect in their spa-inspired rooms.

After a sound night's slumber in true elegance, couples will have the option of ordering room service or enjoying breakfast at 96th Street Bistro. The casual restaurant serves California cuisine with only the freshest ingredients from local farmers and ranchers.

Lovers seeking romantic hotel deals near LAX should book the Live Life To Discover ... Love Package online or by calling 1-800-228-9290 and using promotional code RHO. The deal is good for stays from Feb. 14-16, 2013.
