AT JW MARRIOTT DESERT SPRINGS RESORT & SPA THIS VALENTINE'S DAY, RED VELVET MASSAGE AND SWEET CREAM SCRUBS OFFER A SWEET SPA EXPERIENCE

Zero-Calories and 100% Indulgence Bring Tender-Kneaded Care to Palm Desert Hotel this February

PALM DESERT, CA — Freshly baked spa treatments with zero calories are being offered at the JW Marriott Desert Springs Resort & Spa this February, just in time for Valentine's Day.

The Red Velvet Heavenly Meltdown treatments are a sweet, guilt-free indulgence. The 60-minute Red Velvet Aromatherapy Massage uses a white velvety buttercream-scented whipped shea butter with Whoopie! Cream. The Sweet Cream Salt Scrub (30 or 60-minutes) is an invigorating sea salt exfoliation that uses silky rice bran oil and adds a touch of soft sweet cream aroma. And the Caviar Facial is the ultimate experience for the face, hands and décolletage. This unique facial hydrates, lifts, firms and smoothes the skin with protein-rich caviar and powerful antioxidants. Spa-goers will emerge renewed, refreshed and well... you know, looking quite tasty.

All treatments are available throughout the month of February 2013 at the 38,000 square-foot Spa at Desert Springs—now the largest in Southern California. The spa also features Turkish hammams, digitally programmable desert rain showers by Kohler, and saunas with floor-to-ceiling windows looking over the resort's Ted Robinson golf courses. The Spa is also equipped with a fitness center, Spa Bistro serving organic produce and free-range meats and a full spa retail shop.
