Courtyard Sacramento Rancho Cordova Hotel Finishes $1.8 Million Renovation

Hotel in Rancho Cordova rejuvenates its accommodations with new furnishings, décor; lobby improvements include new restaurant experience

Rancho Cordova, CA – The Courtyard Sacramento Rancho Cordova has put the “new” back in New Year by starting 2013 with a number of improvements to its guest rooms and lobby area as well as a resolution to renovate its fitness center in March.

The Rancho Cordova hotel already has checked off a list of accomplishments this year that includes dazzling guests with a fresh new look and creating inspiring atmospheres to eat, drink, work, socialize and sleep. From the moment travelers walk into the awe-inspiring lobby to the second they retire to well-appointed rooms, they will be treated to some of the most state-of-the-art accommodations and amenities of any hotel near Sacramento.

The 132 Rancho Cordova hotel rooms stand out from typical accommodations with their new furnishings, stylish décor and thoughtful touches designed to exceed all expectations of business and leisure travelers. Cotton-rich linens now adorn all plush beds and help guests drift off to sound night's sleep while stylish drapes filter out just the right amount of light for the perfect ambiance. New carpet creates a bright and inviting aesthetic to complement improved lighting that sets an appropriate mood for any time of day at this hotel in Rancho Cordova, California.

Upholding its promise to stay modern, the Rancho Cordova hotel has installed new shower curtains in bathrooms and partnered with Paul Mitchell to bring out the best in every guest with a signature lineup of personal products including freshly scented soaps, conditioners and shampoos.

In keeping with Marriott's commitment to create technologically advanced spaces for guests to catch their favorite TV shows or print their boarding passes, the hotel's new lobby area features strategically placed media pods with comfortable seating and flat-screen TVs as well as a Boarding Pass nook with computers and printers. The hotel also added the GoBoard, a 52-inch touch-screen TV with information about all the best sights and attractions in the area including the Sacramento Zoo, a number of foothill wineries and the State Capitol Museum. Guests also can use the GoBoard to browse the day's news headlines, business and weather reports and sports scores.

The Courtyard Sacramento Rancho Cordova Hotel topped off its new look with a new roof and fresh coat of paint on its exterior.

It's not all about looks at this hotel near Sacramento, though. The Courtyard also resolved to provide healthier foods to its guests while celebrating its latest dining concept. The new Bistro — Eat. Drink. Connect. focuses on fresh ingredients and bold flavors for breakfast and dinner. Whether sampling a wide variety of traditional favorites like pizza and sandwiches or sipping on signature cocktails or craft beers during happy hour, guests will appreciate the new space's open layout and comfortable seating. Diners also can grab a cup of freshly brewed Starbucks coffee.

The Courtyard Sacramento Rancho Cordova has made a resolution to be the best hotel in Sacramento and wants visitors to make a reservation today to see what more is in store for 2013.
