Central Consulting Group Receives Deltek's Million Dollar Producer Award

Software firm also selected as a Deltek Premier Partner for 2013

Minneapolis, MN — January 29, 2013 — Central Consulting Group (CCG) was named the winner of Deltek's 2012 Million Dollar Producer Award, in addition to being named a Deltek Premier Partner for 2013.

The Million Dollar Producer Award recognizes CCG's outstanding customer success for growth and profitability with Deltek Vision sales, implementation, consulting, support and training, infrastructure technologies and customization services for project oriented professional services organizations.

The Deltek Premier Partner program, now in its ninth year, attracts and recognizes top-performing business partners. Deltek Premier Partners are chosen based on their excellence in specific business criteria including representing, implementing and supporting Deltek solutions. CCG's suite of software products augments Deltek Vision®, a project-based Enterprise Resource Planning solution. CCG's products allow Deltek Vision users to streamline client and vendor invoicing processes, among other benefits. CCG is one of the few Premier Partners that provides add-on software products that boost the functionality of Deltek software.

"We are honored once again to retain our Deltek Premier Partner status for 2013, marking our ninth year as a Premier Partner," said Jim Falkanger, Managing Partner of CCG. "Even more rewarding is to receive Deltek's Million Dollar Producer Award. CCG is devoted to helping Deltek Vision clients achieve more out of their software. To be recognized for our contribution reaffirms our dedication to client service," he said.

More than 1,000 Deltek customers leverage products and services from CCG, making the firm one of the largest Deltek partners in the world.

About Central Consulting Group (CCG)
