MEDIATION NEWS FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

Personalized and attractive, our newsletter allows you to elegantly promote your practice by providing useful information that clients and referral sources appreciate.

In customizing your newsletter, your name, photograph or logo, and contact information are displayed. You also provide the introduction to the newsletter and have a "spotlight" in the right margin.

You can choose the number of recipients that fit your practice – 100 to 1000 recipients. Once an email address is listed, that email address is not available to others (to avoid clients and referral sources receiving more than one copy of the newsletter).

"This is an absolutely terrific service. Thanks so much, and please keep up the great work."
Leonard Riskin

". . . Frankly it is a hell of a cheap way to contact all your clients every two months - and when you ask for business it's nice to be giving them something."
Peter J. MacKeigan, Q.C., C.Med., C.Arb.

"This is the best newsletter I ever have received. Thank you for putting it together. It is concise, informative and the links are great."
Melanie Vaughn
