Santa Monica Full-service Accounting Firm Elevates Pair to Manager

Santa Monica, CA — The Southern California full-service accounting and consulting firm of Gumbiner Savett Inc. is pleased to announce the promotion of two of its staff members to manager: Stanislava Niatylka is now a tax manager and Joseph Ventura is an audit manager.

“With the excellent firm growth we are experiencing in both the audit and the tax practices, we chose to promote Stanislava and Joseph to managers,” says Michael Savoy, CPA, Managing Director of Gumbiner Savett. “Both Stanislava and Joseph have strong technical and people skills and I am confident that they will manage their new assignments thoughtfully to help us serve our clients more efficiently and effectively. We look forward to their continued contributions to the firm.”

A member of the firm for almost 5 years, Stanislava works with high-net worth individuals and middle-market companies in the areas of tax planning, compliance and consulting in various industries such as real estate, construction, manufacturing and professional services. Stanislava is a graduate of the California State University at Northridge and recently received her Master in Business Taxation (MBT) from there with honors. She is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Joseph is an audit and accounting specialist who works with clients of various sizes such as venture-backed start-ups through established corporations with multiple entities and also specializes on the audits of employee benefit plans. A graduate of the University of California, Santa Cruz, Joseph is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.
