

MINDCREST STRENGTHENS EXECUTIVE TEAM BY APPOINTING SHANTALA SADANANDA AS PRESIDENT

Chicago, Feb 4, 2013 – Mindcrest, a legal outsourcing services pioneer and leader appoints Shantala Sadananda as President.

Shantala is a proven leader with deep client acquisition, operational, outsourcing and business experience. Prior to joining Mindcrest, Shantala has played diverse senior executive leadership role in the financial services business unit at Cap Gemini. Her responsibilities included global client relationships, large global practice development and management, service delivery from multiple delivery centers around the world.

Ganesh Natarajan, Mindcrest CEO says “We are looking at an industry that has consistently exceeded the growth trajectory of all other areas of outsourcing .The global legal outsourcing market has reached over $1bn of annual sales in 2012 and is poised to transform the $400bn legal services market. We have seen significant growth in transformative deals, enterprise wide solutions and innovative business models.”

To meet this significant client demand, Mindcrest added a delivery center in Salt Lake City, UT and offices in New York City, NY, launched foreign language services , expanded core offerings and entered new industry segments.

“With Shantala’s expertise in financial services, extensive experience and an impressive record of building large, scalable business units to deliver innovative solutions, we believe her leadership will help Mindcrest capitalize on the tremendous opportunity before us. This is an exciting time for Mindcrest and Shantala is a key strategic addition to help fuel Mindcrest’s growth and solidify its position as a leader in the legal outsourcing services industry” says Ganesh Natarajan.

Shantala notes “Mindcrest’s reputation for exceptional client service, focus on building long term partnerships and innovative solutions sets itself apart from others in the legal outsourcing industry. I am delighted to be a part of the Mindcrest team and look forward to leading the company into the next phase of its growth and drive long term value for our clients.”
