Residence Inn Long Beach Hotel Announces Arrival of New General Manager

One of the most convenient hotels in Long Beach welcomes General Manager Mac McCann to oversee its popular property

Long Beach, CA – Changes afoot at the Residence Inn Long Beach mean guests can still expect the same exceptional services, complimentary amenities and comfortable spaces – but with a new, experienced leader.

The hotel in Long Beach has announced its new general manager, Mac McCann. McCann, a 22-year veteran of Marriott hotels, brings his attention to detail and proven managerial skills to the hotel in Long Beach.

“I’m eager to work with my new team and am excited to be in the Long Beach area,” said McCann. “Both my family and I are excited and can’t wait to see what the future holds at this fantastic Long Beach hotel.”

McCann started his career with Marriott at the Irvine Marriott. There, he quickly succeeded as director of event management, convention services manager, banquet manager and catering service manager. He then joined the team at the Newport Beach Marriott as director of food and beverage, where he won awards for Food and Beverage Hotel of the Year for Marriott International in 2008 and Food and Beverage Hotel of the Year for Host Hotels and Resorts in 2009.

While the Residence Inn Long Beach is under new management, guests can expect the same signature services that have given the hotel its reputation. One of the best extended-stay hotels in Long Beach, the property makes travel convenient regardless of the duration.

Spacious suites in Long Beach come complete with fully equipped kitchens and separate living and sleeping areas. Entertainment options such as flat-screen HDTVs and complimentary high-speed Internet access provide excellent ways to decompress after a day of working or touring the area, while convenient desks are the perfect place to add the finishing touches to emails or presentations.

Guests can start and end their days with complimentary breakfasts and manager’s receptions, respectively. Nothing beats starting a day with freshly prepared breakfast favorites including fluffy eggs, fresh fruits, warm pastries and eye-opening coffee. In the evening, the manager’s receptions offer light dinner each Monday through Thursday. Guests are encouraged to sit and socialize in the Long Beach hotel’s spacious dining area and meet fellow travelers.

Whether traveling through the area for a couple of days or weeks, few hotels in Long Beach offer the convenient long-term amenities that the Residence Inn does. With comfortable bedroom furniture, in-room amenities and complimentary services (including complimentary parking), guests can look forward to some of the most comfortable suites in Long Beach.
