The Resort at Longboat Key Club Named Top Wedding Venue In TheKnot.com Survey

Popular Florida weddings destination receives top ranking in the TheKnot.com survey.

Sarasota, FL – After their first step onto the property of The Resort at Longboat Key Club, brides will soon want to march down the aisle at this Sarasota weddings destination.

According to TheKnot.com, one of the leading online wedding resources, the Gulf Coast destination is a top choice among venues in Florida. The website's annual survey asks recent brides in West Coast Florida to review all of the vendors they used for their weddings.

The Resort at Longboat Key Club is honored to be ranked among the top wedding venues in Florida. A popular choice for rehearsal dinners, receptions and ceremonies, this Florida weddings site enjoys a spectacular location overlooking pristine white sand beaches. A dedicated team of professionals will assist brides and grooms in creating their dream wedding, and virtually every aspect of a ceremony or reception can be customized to reflect a chosen theme or personalized for the wedding couple.

Beyond the venue, the Sarasota weddings venue features six onsite restaurants serving a range of cuisines that will please the taste buds of an entire wedding party. The onsite Island House Spa can bring out the inner beauty of brides before their big day and will give them a glow unlike any other as they walk down the aisle. The wedding party can also tee off at two championship golf courses for a last-minute rest-and-relaxation session.

After tying the knot, brides and grooms will spend their wedding night in luxurious accommodations. Couples can take in the surrounding area from a private balcony and watch the sunset on their first evening as a married couple. Guest rooms feature 42-inch flat-screen televisions, in-room refrigerators and microwaves and high-speed Internet access.
