TAGLaw Awarded Elite Ranking in Chambers Global 2013 for Legal Networks

St. Petersburg, Florida, USA (March 13, 2013) – TAGLaw®, a worldwide alliance of independent law firms, announced that it has been recognized as an “Elite” network in the Chambers Global 2013 rankings guide for legal networks. With over 145 member firms operating out of more than 300 offices in more than 80 countries, TAGLaw is one of more than 30 global legal networks, but one of only six to receive the highest ranking of “Elite” in Chambers Global.

In selecting networks for their Elite award status, Chambers pays particular attention to the quality of the firms in the network and to their global reach. TAGLaw, with its presence in over 80 countries has leading firms in each jurisdiction providing legal services to companies ranging from the Fortune 1000 to local businesses. With experience in more than 20 practice areas and dozens of industries, TAGLaw offers a formidable capability to its member's clients.

“Chambers is one of the premiere rankings guides in the legal industry. We know that it is a valuable resource for in-house counsel, and we have used it in our own research to identify the most qualified members for TAGLaw.” Said Robert Sattin, President of TAGLaw. “It is only fitting that Chambers has chosen to rank legal networks, since they have substantially impacted the legal marketplace by offering firms and their clients access to legal services around the world. We are honored to receive this distinguished recognition and feel it is a tribute to the quality of firms who are members of TAGLaw.
