

Caregiver Services & Home Care Inc.

Caregiver Services & Home Care Inc. (CSHI), is a premier non-medical home care agency within Southern California with the largest registry of skilled and compassionate caregivers, providing professional Care Management to the elderly and to adults requiring assistance in their health care needs, as well as companionship to persons of all ages and assists in activities for daily living such as meal preparation, light house keeping, driving and shopping assistance. These services enable our clients to maintain independence while living in the comforts of their own home or in a senior retirement home.

Caregiver Services is operated under a professional group of companies specializing in medical billing, employment services, staffing solutions and health care services for 10 years. It is run and managed by health care executives with local and international training enabling the company to provide the best health and professional care honorably deserved by all our clients. We conduct our professional caregiver training at our in-house "Caregiver University" in our Los Angeles head office and we have satellite offices in Canoga Park, Thousand Oaks and Long Beach to better serve larger communities.

Caregiver Services is a duly certified member of CAHSAH (California Association for Health Services at Home), an upstanding member of the Ventura County Home Care Association and "Power Connections" Business Network Group. Caregiver Services is a fully insured, licensed and bonded company.
