New Limited-Time Deal For Wildflower Festival Blooms At Hotels In Richardson

Courtyard Dallas Richardson at Campbell and Residence Inn Dallas Richardson offer deluxe accommodations, tickets to the music and arts festival in May

Richardson, TX – A new, limited-time deal from two hotels in Richardson has sprung just in time for the Texas city’s annual Wildflower! Arts & Music Festival.

The Courtyard Dallas Richardson at Campbell and Residence Inn Dallas Richardson are offering deluxe accommodations from $109 to $209 per Friday through Sunday night plus two tickets to the event with their Wildflower Festival Dallas Package. Complimentary breakfast buffets and evening socials also are included for guests of the Residence Inn.

The three-day festival, planned for May 17-19, 2013, at the Galatyn Park Urban Center in Richardson celebrates music with well-known bands and musicians on six performance stages as well as a marketplace, food garden and kids zone with games. The event started as a way for Richardson residents to celebrate the blooming of its seven species of Texas wildflowers and has turned into one of the area’s most recognized and anticipated music festivals.

This year’s lineup features a number of internationally known artists and bands including Uncle Kracker, Grand Funk Railroad, Gretchen Wilson, 38 Special, The Charlie Daniels Band, The Toadies, Reverend Horton Heat and Robert Earl Keen. Also scheduled to appear are Slaid Cleaves, Cowboy Mouth, Eleven Hundred Springs, Blue Oyster Cult, Eliza Gilkyson and Terry Hendrix with Lloyd Maines. Celebrity impersonator Rich Izbach, aka Elton John, will make a special appearance with five shows of his hit “Rocket Man, The Best of Elton John.”

Kids will have a ball at The Wildflower! Arts & Music Festival by taking part in karaoke, making a bead bracelet, getting their faces painted, climbing a rock wall, visiting a petting zoo and playing free games for cool prizes. A youth talent show featuring kids ages 3 to 12 also will take place. Festival hours are 6 p.m. to midnight Friday, May 17; 11 a.m. to midnight Saturday, May 18; and 12:30 to 8 p.m. Sunday, May 19.

A jam-packed, fun-filled day will slowly wind down into a quiet night's slumber at either Richardson, TX, hotel, located less than 1 mile from the Wildflower! venue. Each hotel offers the utmost in comfort with custom comforters, cotton-rich linens and plenty of fluffy pillows in spacious, refreshed rooms. Pullout sofa beds provide extra sleeping space. Each hotel also has complimentary high-speed wireless Internet.

The Courtyard guest rooms boast flat-screen TVs, irons and ironing boards, coffeemakers, spacious desks with ergonomic chairs and comfortable sofas. The Residence Inn suites feature fully-equipped kitchens with microwaves, refrigerators, cooktop stoves, dishwashers, pots and pans, dishes and glasses and silverware. Grocery shopping service also is available.

Visitors at the Courtyard will be able to enjoy breakfast and dinner at The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect. featuring seasonal fruits, burgers, pizzas, salads and sandwiches made from the freshest ingredients as well as freshly brewed Starbucks drinks. The Bistro at the Richardson, Texas, hotel also offers a number of craft, domestic and imported beers and has a bartender on duty to whip up a custom cocktail.

Fluffy scrambled eggs, potatoes and fresh waffles with a number of toppings are among the Residence Inn's free hot breakfast offerings in the newly renovated lobby with a spacious communal table for families or smaller groups.

Music lovers looking to put a smile on their faces can take advantage of the Wildflower Festival Dallas Package when booking Friday through Sunday night stays now through May 19, 2013, at either hotel by going online or calling 1-800-228-9290 and using promotional code CUE.
