

Karlton Jones is no amateur when it comes to Hip-Hop and even Jazz. Since 1998 his passion to pursue music became a reality; however, his true purpose was not yet fully revealed. Several years past while performing secular music until a near death experience changed his life forever. During this difficult time in his life God revealed to him that the music he made should be to glorify Jesus Christ. Ever since Karlton has been determined to share the good news of the Gospel around the world to those who don't know the meaning of life. Karlton states " I believe the meaning of life is to believe in Jesus, love others as he did, and use the gifts and talents that he has equipped us with to be a light in this dark world." With this in mind Karlton is determined to lead as many as possible to Christ through his music ministry. Being an accomplished jazz saxophonist and Christian Hip-Hop artist sets this up and coming artist in a class of his own. With his new Gospel Hip-Hop / Jazz fusion album dropping this summer 2013 with the lead single "Commissioned" Karlton is ready to do just that - be commissioned for Christ and a blessing to others.
