FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TIAG's Sister Alliance TAGLaw Awarded Elite Ranking in Chambers Global 2013 for Legal Networks

St. Petersburg, Florida, USA (April 2, 2013) – TAGLaw[®], the sister alliance of TIAG[®] (The International Accounting Group), has been recognized as an “Elite” network in the Chambers Global 2013 rankings guide for legal networks. TAGLaw is one of more than 30 global legal networks, but one of only six to receive the highest ranking of “Elite” in Chambers Global.

TIAG and TAGLaw combine to provide professional accounting, financial and legal services on a worldwide scale. With approximately 12,500 professionals in over 260 member firms, and more than 450 offices in over 90 countries, they serve clients ranging from the Fortune 1000 to local businesses. In 2012, Accountancy Age ranked TIAG, in combination with TAGLaw, as one of the three largest alliances of accountants in the world.

“In addition to the many benefits provided by TIAG, the relationship with TAGLaw is one that many of our members strategically utilize,” said Robert Sattin, President of TIAG. “The collaboration that takes place between TIAG and TAGLaw members is evident in the many success stories we receive, our cross-alliance Specialty Groups and the collegial environment at our international conferences and regional meetings.”

“TIAG’s relationship with TAGLaw gives our firm an incredible advantage when clients have questions involving cross-border matters,” said Oksana Hoey of Murray, Jonson, White & Associates, TIAG’s Virginia member. “I also serve as a co-chair of TIAG and TAGLaw’s TAG Tax Specialty Group and have had the opportunity to work hand-in-hand with talented accounting and legal professionals from around the world.”
